VETERINARY PRACTICE

Welcome

Hello and welcome to our panto—Aladdin.

The cast and Harlequin dancers have worked really hard, but we have had great fun making it.

Don't forget to boo the baddie, Abanazer, oh and watch out for the Sand Monster!

On behalf of the whole group, I would like to thank Tony Garwood for directing this show—he did a brilliant job last Christmas with Sleeping Beauty and this one looks on course to be brilliant too!

We are delighted to welcome some new members and I hope they have enjoyed their first show with us and will star in many more to come.

So, sit back, relax and enjoy the show.

Director's Notes

Welcome to our tale of love, villainy and washing. A story packed full of magic enchantment and eastern promise.

Aladdin is in love. He has seen the beautiful Princess Jasmine just once, but he knows she is the one. She loves him too, but her mother, the Empress, wants more than a street rat for a son-in-law.

Abanazer has spent his life searching for the lamp that will give him power. If only he were not so evil, he could retrieve it himself. He will need help from good-hearted Aladdin, who can gain entry to the cave but will perhaps be trapped there forever. The Widow Twankey is up to her arms in the washing. She loves both her sons, but just wishes she could find either of them when there is work to be done.

Will Aladdin and Jasmine share a future of joint happiness?

Will Abanazer rule the world with Jasmine as his bride?

Will Widow Twankey ever get the posh wash right?

This year we are pleased to present a panto scripted by Damian Tasler, David Lovesey and Steve Clark with John Dowell. I hope you enjoy watching as much as we have performing.

It has once again been a pleasure working with this talented group of people. From chorus to principals to dancers, you could not want for greater commitment.

There are some people I would like to thank in particular. Firstly, Lynne Holman and Gill Veck for their tireless work as Assistant Directors. We continue to work closely with Janice Turner and her Harlequin Studio dancers. Their dances are just stunning. The stage setting and swift scene changes are down to Michele Harden and her crew. Nadia Bunker, our new Musical Director, has captured the spirit of pantomime through her vocal arrangements.

Let's not forget your role. Panto thrives on its audience. Abanazer needs you to boo, Aladdin needs to win your cheers and Wishee Washee just wants to know you love him.

You won't be able to sit still through all this. We're gonna shake it, shake it!

Visit our Facebook page for behind the scenes photos and leave your comments.

About Peacehaven Players

Peacehaven Players are a musical theatre group who stage two shows a year, a major summer production and a pantomime in the winter. We are an open company and new members are always welcome to join us without the need to audition.

Not an actor? We still want to hear from you. Peacehaven Players offers something for everyone, from working backstage to front of house, painting scenery, props, making costumes, or even just general help, there's always something for you to get involved in.

Our main aim at Peacehaven Players is, of course, to have fun. It's of utmost importance that we enjoy what we do, but it's not all about the acting. There's a great social side to being a member of the Players. We hold regular fund raising events such as coffee mornings and car boot sales, which is a great way to get to know everyone and meet even more members of the community. We also get together for meals and nights out for the chance to socialise outside of rehearsals.
