Peacehaven Players

Peacehaven Players are a friendly and supportive group and although we work hard, rehearsing on Tuesday and Thursday evenings, a good time is had by all. So if the idea of "treading the boards" appeals why not join us? If you don't want to act there is plenty to do backstage - scenery, costumes, hair & make-up, lighting, sound and working 'front of house'

OR BE A PATRON

If you enjoy our shows and would like to become a part of Peacehaven Players but don't want to be an active member why not be a Patron? Among other things this gives you concessions on tickets and a regular newsletter to keep you informed about forthcoming events. For an application form or more details please speak to one of our members in the foyer.

We would like to thank every one who has helped us over the last year, and a special big THANK YOU goes to you, our very supportive audience and ,last but not least, we wish you all a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Jack and the Beanstalk

Here we go again on another journey into Pantoland. Our hero, Jack is so desperate to be rich enough to marry his princess that he lets the Queen trick him into selling his mothers cow, Lacticia. Fairy Flintspark gets yet another spell wrong and makes the gold vanish so all Jack ends up with is a bag of beans. Then the adventure starts as we all follow Jack up the beanstalk.

Don't forget to cheer our hero, boo the villains and let Eustace know when his treasure chest is in danger, and most of all enjoy yourselves!!!

... So anyway there was Jack on his way to market with the cow in Tow. Feeling really sorry for himself (mortgage rates had probably just gone up again!) when he passed his local branch of SARGEANTS ESTATE AGENTS. Dreamily he peered through the window(Oh yes he did) "What an amazing selection of properties!" said Jack to the Cow (who was behind him). "Some of them are even in far away lands" The one that really caught his eye was surrounded by clouds and described as being of "over-generous proportions with magnificent views - ideal for a large family" "I wonder who lives in a house like that" said Jack (doing his Lloyd Grossman impression). Little did he know how soon he would come to find out.

However, how much easier it would have been to arrange to view the property through SARGEANTS rather than mess about climbing beanstalks and upsetting the owner. But then there would have been no pantomime.

The moral? To avoid a pantomime when you are buying or selling property contact SARGEANTS!
