Make the right decision

Choosing an accountant is a personal decision and one that most people make only once or twice in their lifetime, so it's important to get it right.

To share intimate details of your business and personal financial dealings with someone else and to trust and follow the advice they give you can take an extreme leap of faith.

Find out what you should be getting from your accountant by answering the 12 questions every business owner should ask themselves.

Mark Boxall has devised the Shoreline Challenge, a list of 12 critical factors he thinks every business owner should consider.

Take the Challenge today at www.shorelineaccountants.co.uk or give Mark a call.

Welcome

Hello and welcome to our summer production—Nunsense, The Mega Musical.

Make sure you listen and pay attention as there will be a quiz and you will need to know the answers too. Prizes are given for selected participants, but whatever you do, do not accept food or beverages from Sister Julia. Your life may depend on it.

Trying to keep these Brothers and Sisters under control is a big challenge, but I think Mother Superior does an OK job. Sister Robert Anne will do some amazing impressions and Sister Mary Leo will show you some lovely dancing.

Feel free to chat with Brothers and Sisters while they are out in the auditorium with you, they are very chatty and friendly.

It has been a challenge to bring you this show, but with the wonderful direction and determination of Jim Jenner and choreography by the ever talented and patient Janice Turner and her colleagues we have pulled it off. I can't express enough our gratitude to Anthony, our Musical Director, who has the patience of a saint.

On behalf of the Players and myself, we would like to thank you for your support in coming to see our show.

Now sit back and enjoy Nunsense but don't forget to pay attention!

Director's Notes

Welcome to Peacehaven Players production of 'Nunsense'
It has been great fun putting the Nuns through their paces for this lovely happy show. But I have had to keep reminding them that when wearing a Nun's Habit their dancing would be a little restricted and they would have to act more demure!!! There's fat chance of that though isn't there.

My grateful thanks to Anthony for getting us to sing in tune, to Janice and the girls for sweating with us dance wise, also to Michele, Mark & Chris for a great set.

So sit back and enjoy Nunsense, please help Mother Superior to keep order, but watch as Sister Hubert helps everyone to get there. Cheer for our Nun Ballerina Sister Leo and our Sister Amnesia will need help with her Quiz too. I also hope you can understand Sister Robert Anne's 'yankee' accent.

As this production is my swan song, I wish to thank everyone at Peacehaven Players for putting up with me this last time as Director.

I would like to wish all the Players the very best for the future.

About Peacehaven Players

Peacehaven Players are a musical theatre group who stage two shows a year, a major summer production and a pantomime in the winter. We are an open company and new members are always welcome to join us without the need to audition.

Not an actor? We still want to hear from you. Peacehaven Players offers something for everyone, from working backstage to front of house, painting scenery, props, making costumes, or even just general help, there's always something for you to get involved in.

Our main aim at Peacehaven Players is, of course, to have fun. It's of utmost importance that we enjoy what we do, but it's not all about the acting. There's a great social side to being a member of the Players. We hold regular fund raising events such as coffee mornings and car boot sales, which is a great way to get to know everyone and meet even more members of the community. We also get together for meals and nights out for the chance to socialise outside of rehearsals.
