VETERINARY PRACTICE

Welcome

Hello and welcome to our summer show, written by Judith Foot.

She has done another amazing job and done us proud, so I hope we can make her proud of us

by putting on a good show for her.

We have all worked hard to put this together, so I hope you enjoy it.

On a different note, we are looking for new members to join the group. If you fancy it, then come along on a Tuesday or Thursday evening for a chat.

Mandie Fairhall

Chairperson

Director's Notes

Welcome to Crystal's Department Store, where high fashion is just old fashioned and good service is non-existent. But wait, things are about to change, Crystal King has inherited the Store and doesn't like what she finds. Watch the transition as Crystal sets in motion a series of events which leads to a dazzling fashion show and a spectacular showdown.

Crystal's Department Store is my third outing as an author, my first being The Wow Factor which was performed in June 2013, and the second was Fly Me! in 2014. I like to write scripts which give every member of the cast a part so they can be fully involved throughout the show. One of my greatest pleasures during the rehearsal process is seeing the characters I have created come to life. The cast have been fantastic, and I would like to thank them for their enthusiasm, commitment, good humour and dedication, I couldn't have asked for more.

I would like to thank my Assistant Director, Lynne Holman, who has been a tower of strength, she not only sourced all our props but is also Front of House Manager and plays the part of Nerys in the show (and two cameo parts), she epitomises women who can multi-task!

My thanks to Mandie Fairhall who has given us some lovely dance routines to accompany the songs which have been beautifully played on piano by Mikey Parsons and Neil Rocks on drums. This is Mikey's first time as MD, he usually plays drums but when I discovered he could play piano so amazingly, I coerced him into taking the position and he has done us proud, thank you Mikey.

The scenery has been particularly challenging as our team is small, my deepest gratitude to Chris Fairhall, Alisha Barry and Nasim Chillcott for coming up with some great ideas and recreating them so stunningly.

We are incredibly honoured to have a team from the Bond School of Dance in the show, based in Seaford, this Dance School are performing in "Let's Face the Music", "My Heart Will Go On" and "Holding Out for a Hero". My thanks to Nikki Bond for choreographing these dances, the dancers are fabulous and a real treat to watch.

So sit back, relax and enjoy some retail therapy from the comfort of your seat, without having to spend a penny, well not until the interval anyway!

Judith Foot,
Author and Director

About Peacehaven Players

Peacehaven Players are a musical theatre group who stage two shows a year, a major summer production and a pantomime in the winter. We are an open company and new members are always welcome to join us without the need to audition.

Not an actor? We still want to hear from you. Peacehaven Players offers something for everyone, from working backstage to front of house, painting scenery, props, making costumes, or even just general help, there's always something for you to get involved in.

Our main aim at Peacehaven Players is, of course, to have fun. It's of utmost importance that we enjoy what we do, but it's not all about the acting. There's a great social side to being a member of the Players. We hold regular fund raising events such as coffee mornings and car boot sales, which is a great way to get to know everyone and meet even more members of the community. We also get together for meals and nights out for the chance to socialise outside of rehearsals.

Make the right decision

Choosing an accountant is a personal decision and one that most people make only once or twice in their lifetime, so it's important to get it right.

To share intimate details of your business and personal financial dealings with someone else and to trust and follow the advice they give you can take an extreme leap of faith.

Find out what you should be getting from your accountant by answering the 12 questions every business owner should ask themselves.

Mark Boxall has devised the Shoreline Challenge, a list of 12 critical factors he thinks every business owner should consider.

Take the Challenge today at www.shorelineaccountants.co.uk or give Mark a call.
