Welcome

Hello and a very warm welcome to our wonderful panto.

We have had great fun rehearsing for Beauty and the Beast.

It is amazing to watch the characters evolving with each passing rehearsal.

We hope you very much enjoy the songs, the dancing and the gags they make up the world of panto. Don't forget to boo at the baddie and cheer the goodies! And, even more importantly, sing nice and loud for the audience participation song!

Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year!

Mandie Fairhall

Chairperson and Joint Director

Director's Notes

Here we are coming up to Christmas again and another panto, this time Beauty and the Beast, written by John Hewer.

I would like to thank Mandie Fairhall for being co-Director, and Roni Bromley as Assistant Director. Both have worked so hard to bring everything together. The cast choreography is thanks to Mandie, Roni and Judith Foot.

Whilst mentioning choreography, we are once again lucky enough to have the Harlequin Studio dancers in the show, for which we must thank Janice Turner.

I would also like to thank Alisha Berry and her team for the hard work producing the scenery and providing swift scene changes.

Maureen Bywaters has been invaluable as our Wardrobe Mistress and the whole cast has helped by providing most of the props themselves.

Finally, I would like to thank our Musical Director, Mark Hodge, for all his inspiration with the musical numbers.

So please sit back, relax and enjoy the fruits of our labour!

Gill Veck, Joint Director

On Thursday, 16th November, just 3 weeks before opening night, Peacehaven Players faced a bit of a disaster when our Dame, (Sue Preem), played by Tony Garwood, suffered a knee injury during rehearsals.

This meant that regrettably Tony had to bow out of the pantomime. Tony had put in months of preparation in playing the dame and was so funny he had the rest of the cast in stitches. Also, Tony has worked so hard behind the scenes on marketing the show, obtaining new advertisers, giving a radio interview, etc., that this was a very disappointing blow to Tony and all the cast.

We have been lucky enough to find Zoe Giles to take Tony's place at such short notice and wish her well in the role.

Once Tony's knee has mended, we can look forward to working with Tony on our new-style summer show "Who Killed The Pop Star?", which Tony will be directing.

All the best to you Tony, from us all.

YOU?

Are you a budding actor, singer, designer, painter or stage hand?

Why not come and join us, everyone is welcome.

Patrons

Peacehaven Players would like to express our sincere thanks to our loyal patrons who have supported us over the years. Our current patrons are:-

Sue Fairhall and Chris Fairhall

As a community group the support we receive from you, our audience members, and our patrons is vital for the future of Peacehaven Players. If you have enjoyed our shows and would like to show your support without becoming an active member, then why not become a patron?

Becoming a patron gives you the benefits of free tickets, concessions, and a sneak peak at shows and “behind the scenes” action at special rehearsal evenings.

For an application form, or more information, please see our front of house team or contact us on: 01273 580399

About Peacehaven Players

Peacehaven Players are a musical theatre group who stage two shows a year, a major summer production and a pantomime in the winter. We are an open company and new members are always welcome to join us without the need to audition.

Not an actor? We still want to hear from you. Peacehaven Players offers something for everyone, from working backstage to front of house, painting scenery, props, making costumes, or even just general help, there's always something for you to get involved in.

Our main aim at Peacehaven Players is, of course, to have fun. It's of utmost importance that we enjoy what we do, but it's not all about the acting. There's a great social side to being a member of the Players. We hold regular fund raising events such as coffee mornings and car boot sales, which is a great way to get to know everyone and meet even more members of the community. We also get together for meals and nights out for the chance to socialise outside of rehearsals.
