Welcome

Hello and welcome to our pantomime - Sleeping Beauty.

As usual, we have had a lot of fun whilst rehearsing this panto.

It is amazing to watch the characters evolve, as gradually our books go down and we can get on with concentrating on the acting.

We hope you very much enjoy the songs, the dancing and the gags that make up the world of panto. Don't forget to boo at the baddie and cheer the goodies! And, even more importantly, sing nice and loud for the audience participation song!

Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year!

Director's Notes

Sleeping Beauty 2019

It has been a great pleasure to direct this talented and committed group of people once again. This is the fourth panto I have directed for The Players, and my second go at Sleeping Beauty. One of the beauties of pantomime is that the title may be the same, some of the jokes very familiar but each script presents the enduring story in its own unique fashion. This version is set in the kingdom of Inajiffy. So, you will notice clocks and time pieces throughout the costumes and scenery.

The King and Queen of Inajiffy are shocked when evil witch Wazere places a curse on their daughter Katrina. On her eighteenth birthday the Princess will prick her finger on a spindle and die. The good fairies are able to have this spell commuted: she will just sleep for a hundred years. The curse is duly fulfilled despite all the King and Queen's efforts. The Princess and everyone in the castle fall asleep and the castle is surrounded by a vast forest. But fear not, for help is on the way in the shape of Prince Stephan aided by Katrina's brother Prince Arfer, and a happy ending is assured.

I must thank Mandie Fairhall and Michelle Roman for their help as assistant directors in bringing this great show to the stage. The backstage crew, led by Michele Harden, have worked tirelessly to turn my designs for the scenery into reality. We are all grateful to Wendy Clare for the amazing work she has done in creating the costumes for this production. Thanks also to Ricky Horscraft our MD for the music.

We are pleased once again to be joined by the Harlequin Dance Studio dancers. Where do they find all that energy?

The opening song of our show "Welcome to Our Pantomime" is an original number specially written and composed by our multi-talented Players' member, Judith Foot. Thank you, Judith. Such a lovely start to the show.

You can watch each of our shows take shape by following us on Facebook, Twitter or Instagram. Heaps of rehearsal photos and details about each show. We welcome your comments and do share anything you find amusing.

About Peacehaven Players

Peacehaven Players are a musical theatre group who stage two shows a year, a major summer production and a pantomime in the winter. We are an open company and new members are always welcome to join us without the need to audition.

Not an actor? We still want to hear from you. Peacehaven Players offers something for everyone, from working backstage to front of house, painting scenery, props, making costumes, or even just general help, there's always something for you to get involved in.

Our main aim at Peacehaven Players is, of course, to have fun. It's of utmost importance that we enjoy what we do, but it's not all about the acting. There's a great social side to being a member of the Players. We hold regular fund raising events such as coffee mornings, which is a great way to get to know everyone and meet even more members of the community. We also get together for meals and nights out for the chance to socialise outside of rehearsals.
