Welcome

Hello and welcome to our brand new summer play—The Perfect Wedding by our very own Judith Foot.

This is the fourth play Judith has written for the Peacehaven Players and, as ever, it consists of great writing, lots of music, dance and fun.

We have several new members in the Peacehaven Players for this show, together with all the 'old' favourites. So look out for all the new faces!

Apart from writing and directing the play, Judith also takes part and so has been ably assisted by Georgie Bancroft as Assistant Director, who also appears in the show.

I hope you all enjoy the show, as much as we enjoyed putting it together.

Mandie Fairhall

Chairperson of Peacehaven Players

Director's Notes

Ashleigh wants the 'perfect' wedding, the 'perfect' engagement party, and the 'perfect' hen party, well who wouldn't. But events have a funny way of conspiring against her best laid plans. Will she overcome these obstacles to marry the man of her dreams and live happily ever after? Watch and see!

The Perfect Wedding is my fourth outing as an author; my first was The Wow Factor which Peacehaven Players performed in 2013, a year later Fly Me! took to the stage and in 2016 Crystal's Department Store. Since then, I am proud to say, that Fly Me! and Crystal's has been performed in Ashford and Burnley by other amateur groups.

I enjoy writing comedies, and for the first time have written one of the songs in the show—The Perfect Wedding, as I couldn't find any songs about weddings. I like to ensure every member of the cast has a part where they can be fully involved throughout the show. The cast have been brilliant, and I would like to thank them for their enthusiasm, commitment, good humour and dedication, I couldn't have asked for more; although I may have heard a groan when I shouted 'again' for the sixth time!

I would like to thank my Assistant Director, Georgie Bancroft, who has been a tower of strength, she is an amazing organiser and extremely creative. She plays Felicity Hill-Berry in the show, with whom she shares a never wavering sense of optimism and attention to detail.

My deepest gratitude to Ricky Horscraft, our MD and pianist, who has coached us in all twenty songs and turned my own song into a reality. We have some lovely dance routines thanks to Janice Turner and Georgie Bancroft, who have produced some wonderful choreography. I am delighted that Harlequin will be performing with us again, watch out for their amazing dancing, my grateful thanks to Zoey-Ann Dean and Charlotte Williams .

Our scenery team of Michele Harden and Sean Sander-Cawley have worked tirelessly and have come up with some creative ideas and stunning scenes. Thank you to you both for all your hard work and commitment. It doesn't end there either, as they will be working behind the scenes during the show.

Thank you to Wendy Clare for making the beautiful bridesmaids dresses, bouquets and buttonholes, and thanks too to her daughter Sian for the patterns.

And finally, thank you to you, our guest, I hope you are sitting comfortably in your wedding attire, eagerly awaiting the arrival of the Bride and Groom on this momentous day, a day some thought would never come. By way of explanation let me take you back in time, to an evening at the Hill-Berry's and an announcement, which sets in motion a series of events leading up to this 'perfect' day. Please feel free to stand up and dance with us at any opportune moment, laugh with the Groom, cry with the Bride and clap along to all the wonderful songs we have in store for you.

About Peacehaven Players

Peacehaven Players are a musical theatre group who stage two shows a year, a major summer production and a pantomime in the winter. We are an open company and new members are always welcome to join us without the need to audition.

Not an actor? We still want to hear from you. Peacehaven Players offers something for everyone, from working backstage to front of house, painting scenery, props, making costumes, or even just general help, there's always something for you to get involved in.

Our main aim at Peacehaven Players is, of course, to have fun. It's of utmost importance that we enjoy what we do, but it's not all about the acting. There's a great social side to being a member of the Players. We hold regular fund raising events such as coffee mornings and car boot sales, which is a great way to get to know everyone and meet even more members of the community. We also get together for meals and nights out for the chance to socialise outside of rehearsals.
